

THE STATE OF HUMAN RIGHTS: HOW WILL HUMAN RIGHTS BE PROTECTED AFTER THE GENERAL ELECTION?

In three separate events, the front bench spokesmen responsible for human rights from the three main political parties will explain their vision for human rights in the UK after the general election.

Chair

Jonathan Cooper OBE, Chairman of HRLA

Speakers & Dates

Jack Straw MP, Labour	11 March @ 8.30am (breakfast available)
David Howarth MP, Liberal Democrats	17 March @ 6.30pm (tea available)
Dominic Grieve MP, Conservative	24 March @ 8.15am (breakfast available)

Venue

Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer
Tudor Street entrance, 28 Tudor Street, London, EC4Y 0AY
No admission charge

CPD accreditation

Each session is worth 1 CPD

If you have any questions that you would like to be put to the speakers, please send these to Jonathan Cooper at j.cooper@doughtystreet.co.uk at least two days before the relevant event. The HRLA Committee will select which questions will be asked.

HRLA are very grateful to Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer for supporting these events.

These events will be very popular. To be sure of a place please contact Aaron Dolan, HRLA's Administrator:
ADolan@barcouncil.org.uk