

How to be an Environmental Lawyer

6pm Wednesday 22 March 2017

Followed by a drinks reception hosted by Leigh Day

Leigh Day, Priory House, 25 St John's Lane, London
EC1M 4LB

Join us to hear from leading practitioners with broad expertise on environmental law and how it touches our lives, from river waste to air pollution; from manure odour and night flights, to contaminated cockles and everything in between.

Many of these cases can involve human rights arguments based on both the ECHR and the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union. Much of our domestic legal framework on the environment has an EU legacy underpinned by the case law of the CJEU. As Brexit looms, our environmental law may be about to experience a step-change.

Our speakers

David Hart QC (1 Crown Office Row)

Richard Buxton (Richard Buxton LLP)

Sarah Sackman (Francis Taylor Building)
