

Human Rights and International Criminal Law

The Human Rights Lawyers' Association in collaboration with South Eastern Circuit is delighted to invite you to our latest upcoming event, which will examine how international criminal law is used to protect human rights. We are pleased to announce three great speakers, Wayne Jordash QC, Megan Hirst, and Richard J Rogers who will be covering the situations in which they are using ICL to protect human rights in Ukraine, Cambodia, and for the victims of international crimes. The discussion will be followed by a Q&A session and drinks reception.

6.30pm Wednesday 5 April 2017

Parliament Chamber, Middle Temple, Middle Temple Lane, London EC4Y 9AT

Speakers

Wayne Jordash QC

Doughty Street Chambers

Richard J Rogers

International human rights and international criminal law expert

Megan Hirst

Doughty Street Chambers

To RSVP for this free event, contact administrator@hrla.org.uk