

Hogan
Lovells

In Conversation with Martha Spurrier, Director of Liberty

The Human Rights Lawyers' Association, in partnership with Hogan Lovells, invites you to join Martha Spurrier, Director of Liberty, in conversation with Baroness Helena Kennedy QC.

In one of her first public appearances since taking on the role as director of the human rights organisation Liberty, Martha will discuss her key priorities for Liberty's future campaigning, the possible repeal of the Human Rights Act, the relationship between business and human rights, and reflect on the challenges for human rights and civil liberties in the UK.

6pm Tuesday 13th September 2016

Followed by a drinks reception

Hogan Lovells, Atlantic House, Holborn Viaduct, London EC1A 2FG

Register for this event

Entry is free and open to all practitioners, academics, and students but space is limited so please register your interest here.